A Tribal Perspective on MWD Investment & Stewardship

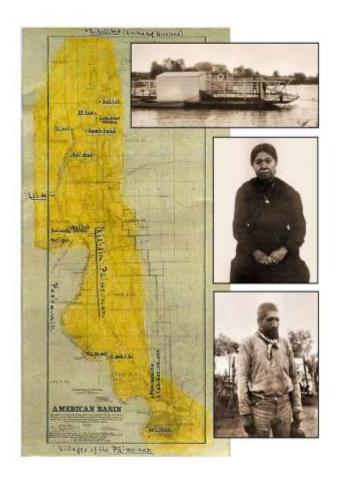

Malissa Tayaba Vice-Chair

Max Gomberg Water Policy Advisor

Tribal History & Background

- Known today as the Shingle Springs Band of Miwok Indians, a mixed ancestry tribe comprised of Nisenan, Miwok, & Hawaiian lineage.
- Federally recognized tribe, located in El Dorado County.
- The Tribe was removed from ancestral homelands that span 7 CA counties, including Sacramento, Sutter, El Dorado, Yuba, Yolo, Placer, and Amador counties. The name, Shingle Springs Band of Miwok Indians, can cause some confusion pertaining to identity as we also have Nisenan tribal lineage.
- 1916 census US government named the Tribe the Sacramento-Verona Band of Homeless Indians
 - unceded homelands were stolen, leaving many relatives "landless", struggling to stay close to major village sites in the Sacramento Valley.
- In 1920, 160 acres of land, now known as the Shingle Springs Rancheria, was purchased by the US government and was eventually put into trust for the Tribe.

"Our way of life" centers upon the waterways. Our ancestors lived in various villages along the rivers. The Sacramento – San Joaquin Delta was & is our grocery store. It fed us, clothed us, housed us, kept us healthy; and in return, we tended to the land that gave so much to us. Today, we continue to be guardians of the region & its waterways." M.Tayaba

Getting a Seat at the Water Governance Table

We have tried many different paths to make our voices heard

- Meeting with elected and appointed officials
- Engaging with advisory councils
- Advocating within regulatory processes
- Requesting formal consultation
- Developing legislation
- Forming a coalition and filing a civil rights complaint with USEPA

AB 2614 (Ramos)

- Bill was double referred: Assembly Committee on Environmental Safety & Toxic Materials and Assembly Water, Parks & Wildlife
- Passed Asm ESTM Committee 6-0 with bi-partisan Support
- Passed Asm WPL Committee 12-0 with bi-partisan Support
- Held in Assembly Appropriation Committee where it died a valiant death by price tag on the Suspense file
- Bill had Support from Legislative Leadership, but the large price tag attached due to "implementation" and staffing costs, determined by State Water Board killed it
- Stayed tuned for TBU bill 2.0 coming soon.

Conclusion

The December vote is about more than financing planning studies – it's a statement about financial stewardship, environmental stewardship, commitment to OneWater principles, and a broader vision.

We would rather be your partners than your antagonists.

There will be enough water for everyone if we make different choices.
